

HOPE HIGHLIGHTS

Week of August 30, 2010

Issue 103

Volunteering Makes a Major Difference!

The leadership shown by the Track 4a Pastors in the Heritage of Faith ~ Vision of Hope campaign is generating tremendous results. Currently Pastors are finalizing their Campaign Executive Committees and beginning recruitment for their Major and Advance Phase committees.

Being a volunteer on the parish Heritage of Faith ~ Vision of Hope committee is an opportunity to practice Christian stewardship, not only of treasure but by sharing time and talent, too. A volunteer makes a commitment of about two to four hours a week, including a 30-minute report meeting each week. All volunteers receive training for their specific role on the parish committee. The more volunteers a parish has the less work there is for everyone-many hands make light work!

- This past week, Blessed Teresa of Calcutta Parish, Limerick, raised over $100,000 from two phone-a-thon nights!
- One generous family pledged $25,000 to Our Mother of Sorrows, Philadelphia!
- Corpus Christi, Landsdale, received one new gift of $25,000, last week!
- In the past seven days, St. Alphonsus, Maple Glen, received one new gift of $20,000!
- A generous gift of $15,000 was made to St. Timothy, Philadelphia!
- In just one week, St Ignatius of Loyola, Philadelphia, raised 10% of goal!
- Last week, 14 families attended a CEC Orientation at St. Aloysius, Pottstown!

A Tip from the Campaign Office

Because the leadership team is an essential part of the campaign plan, all Campaign Executive Committee roles and gift decisions should be completed prior to the September 16 Kick Off Dinner. Please r.s.v.p. for the Kick Off dinner by September 8 by faxing your reply form directly to the Cardinal's Office.
